Thank you!

The Elders would like to thank all of those who helped make Vacation Bible School a success last week. The theme was “Gone Fishin’ ” with lessons about following Jesus.

There were 16 students (10 guests). We especially want to express our appreciation to Katie Williams for directing, organizing and recruiting volunteers.

Samantha Elliott was in charge of crafts. Kathy Morrow, assisted by Connie Ledbetter, Lora Leatherwood and Patricia Grooms, all helped with the snacks. June Scott, assisted by Fred Gore and Lora Leatherwood, organized the games. Karen and Evan McGee taught the class sessions. Katie, Patricia, Samantha, Karen and Evan all worked on the decorations for the main set.

Teenagers were “buddies” assigned to take care of the students. Thanks to Nathan and Silas Williams, along with their friend Koi, Gage Grooms, Ezra Cochran, Makenna Grasso, Charlie Pollard, Elaina Elliott and Silas Brown for being “buddies”! The opening skit each day was performed” by Evan (bass pro) and fishermen Ezra and Gage and fisherlady Elaina. Ezra actually caught a fish on the last morning! Kylie Cochran and Rhea Carter helped in the background with waivers and logo design. And, David Yelton made the t-shirts.so many people involved! Check out the church’s Facebook page for more photos.

Thanks again to each of you and to all of those who donated snacks, as well!
